

Beverly D. Barnett, CEO

Ms. Beverly D. Barnett is the CEO and Co-Founder of the Pan Canal Alumni Association. In this leadership role, she is committed to lead the organization in fulfilling its mission. Her top priorities are to structure and develop a strong organization to provide efficient, effective, and high quality outreach services to the Panamanian community and others. Beverly was born, raised, and resided in Paraiso on the former Canal Zone, and is the youngest daughter of Alfred Barnett and Josephine Allen-Barnett. Her father is a renowned retired chef from the Panama Canal Balboa Cafeteria, as well as retired owner from Barnett's Catering. Beverly is an Honors Alumna of Paraiso/Balboa High School Class of 1978 and in addition to her high school diploma she was also the recipient of a second diploma with a Bachelor of Science designation. During her high school years, she also served as a Red Cross volunteer at Gorgas Hospital and was subsequently employed by the Personnel Department, Maintenance Division of the Panama Canal. She then traveled to the U.S. to further her education and career. Beverly recalls her classmates as some of the most, friendly, caring, loving, kind, intelligent, rebellious, dedicated, and hard working individuals. Today, these individuals still possess those same traits, high standards, and values and have united to form Pan Canal Alumni Association to honor their distinguished heritage by educating, giving, sharing, caring, memorializing, and helping the community. Beverly is proud to lead this organization and its cause.

Concomitantly, Beverly enjoys a successful career with Program Planning Professionals, Inc. (Pcubed), a program and project management consulting firm. She has been with Pcubed since 1998 and currently serves as Government Contracts Business Manager. Prior to Pcubed, Beverly founded Independent Project Management Administrators, Inc. (IPMA) a small woman-owned business solely dedicated to providing project management and administrative support services to project managers. She was the CEO of IPMA for five years. Beverly believes in continuous learning and expanding her potential. She has been actively involved with the work of numerous non-profit organizations and has maintained professional affiliation with them as well. Since 2005, she has served on the Board of Directors for the National Contract Management Association Los Angeles South Bay Chapter as the Vice President of Secretary; was Founder and President of Microsoft's Project Association Los Angeles Chapter from 1998-2002; former Member and Assistant Finance Director of the Project Management Institute (PMI) L.A. Chapter; Member of Society of Cost Estimating and Analysis (SCEA); and Member Society of Human Resources Management. She is bilingual, fluent in English and Spanish.

Beverly is the proud single mother of two children, her daughter Aisha Corpas and son Londonn Corpas. She enjoys entertaining family and friends and enjoys cooking her father's delicious recipes.
